

Programme for the 13th Dublin Symposium on Jonathan Swift, 18 October 2014

1.30 pm: Symposium speakers and audience assemble in the entry hall of The Deanery; all proceed to Marsh's Library for a presentation of Swift materials

2.15 pm: All reassemble in The Deanery, first floor (Music Room) for the Dean's Welcome

Introduction: Prof. Robert Mahony (Jonathan Swift Foundation)

Professor Claire Connolly (University College, Cork): "Swift and Holyhead"

Professor Christine Gerrard (Lady Margaret Hall, Oxford): "Interrogating Irish Misogyny: The Strange Case of Swift and the Citizen's Housewife Poet"

Professor Sean Moore (University of New Hampshire): "The Social Network of Dublin Printers"

Professor Jenny Davidson (Columbia University): "Swift and Commentary"

Break

Response: Professor Frank Boyle (Fordham University)

Observations: Professor Claude Rawson (Yale University)

Questions from the audience to the speakers

Reception follows in the Dining Room