

Catholic Historical Society of Ireland Annual Conference

Saturday 12 September 2015

Venue: St Patrick's College, Drumcondra, Dublin

- 10.00-10.30am Registration and Tea/Coffee
- 10.30am 'The use of relics and images in late medieval and early modern Ireland'
Ragnall Ó Floinn (National Museum of Ireland)
- 11.15am 'Negotiating religious change and conflict in Ireland: female religious communities, c.1560-c.1640'
Bronagh McShane (National University of Ireland, Galway)
- 12.15pm Lunch
- 1.30pm "'God never prosper the king": sedition and Catholicism in seventeenth-century Ireland'
Eamon Darcy (Maynooth University)
- 2.15pm 'A grand fancy fair and drawing of prizes: Catholic fundraising and Irish economic culture, 1850-1921'
Sarah Roddy (University of Manchester)
- 3.15pm Close

Registration on morning of the conference

Registration fee (lunch not included): €15 (€10 unwaged)

Inquiries to Marian Lyons, Conference secretary, Department of History, Maynooth University (marian.lyons@nuim.ie)
