

A JOURNEY IN SELF-BELIEF

THE PROTESTANT
COMMUNITY
IN IRELAND

SILENCED STORIES

THE PROTESTANT
EXPERIENCE OF 1916

Maynooth University
National University of Ireland Maynooth

An Roinn Gnóthaí Eachtracha
agus Trádála
Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade

A JOURNEY IN SELF-BELIEF

THE PROTESTANT
COMMUNITY
IN IRELAND

SILENCED STORIES

THE PROTESTANT
EXPERIENCE OF 1916

A one-day conference to explore how the Protestant community in Ireland experienced 1916 and the years that followed.

Date: Saturday 14 November 2015

Time: 9.30am - 4.00pm

Venue: Renehan Hall (south campus),
Maynooth University, Maynooth.

PROGRAMME

THINKING MAKES IT SO

What effect did 1916 have on the Protestant psyche in Ireland?

Speaker: Prof Roddy Cowie QUB.

SEAN O'CASEY AND THE UNFINISHED REVOLUTION

A look at the emerging modern Ireland and its place in the world.

Speaker: Ben Levitas
Goldsmith's University, London.

THE PROTESTANT EXPERIENCE OF REVOLUTION IN NORTH CONNAUGHT

A look at how political upheavals that occurred in Ireland in the early decades of the last century impacted on all segments of society.

Speaker: Dr Miriam Moffitt
(St Patrick's College Maynooth)

Facilitated by Lynda Gould

TO BOOK

Online: [www.journeyinselfbelief.org/
silencedstories](http://www.journeyinselfbelief.org/silencedstories)

Email: Earl.Storey@nuim.ie

Post: Earl Storey c/o Maynooth University, Department of Adult and Community
Education, Education House, North
Campus, National University of Ireland,
Maynooth, Co. Kildare.

COST

(includes refreshments / lunch)

€30 (academic / waged)

€20 (unwaged)

[www.journeyinselfbelief.org/
silencedstories](http://www.journeyinselfbelief.org/silencedstories)