

HIDDEN PAGES FROM THE 1916 RISING

A seminar exploring little known archival sources

Hosted by An Post and the Irish Society for Archives

in St Thomas's Church, Cathal Brugha Street, Dublin 1
(beside the Gresham Hotel)

on Tuesday 02nd February 2016

Refreshments from 6pm-Talks from 6.45pm-Admission free

Irish Architectural Archive Westropp Albums 96/57.10/47/1:
View of the GPO from Lower Abbey Street, April 1916

Chaired by Patsy McGarry, Religious Affairs Correspondent, The Irish Times.

Five short illustrated talks by archival curators (commencing 6.45pm) followed by Q&A:

- Colum O’Riordan, General Manager Irish Architectural Archive: ‘Architectural legacies of 1916’.
- Ellen Murphy, Senior Archivist Dublin City Library and Archives: ‘“It was grand to see our Tom-mies”’: Reactions to the Easter Rising in the Monica Roberts Collection’.
- Gráinne Doran, Wexford County Archivist: ‘Keeping it in the family – the collective effort of the men and women in County Wexford, Easter 1916’.
- Pádraig Allen, Archivist St John Ambulance Ireland: ‘The St John Ambulance and the Rising’.
- Stephen Ferguson, Assistant Secretary An Post: ‘What happened to the staff of the GPO?’

This is a free public event and all are welcome.

Email susan.hood@rcbdub.org or phone 01-4923979 for further information.

